FIRST EDITION.

XLIII. CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6, 1874.

SENATE.

Mr. THURMAN presented a resolution from the Toledo Board of Trade in favor of the reciprocity treaty with the Dominion of Canada. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. SCOTT, from the Committee on Finance, reported a substitute for the House bill to authorize medals commemorative of the one hundredth anniversary of the first meeting of the Continental Congress and the Declaration of Independence. Passed.

Mr. DAVIS presented a memorial of the citizens of Jefferson county, West Virginia, asking for an equalization of taxes on national and State banks. Referred.

Mr. THURMAN, from the Judiciary Committee, reported with amendments, the Senate bill authorizing any Circuit Judge to designate the time of holding District or Circuit courts, and to designate a District Judge to attend and hold court in a district not his own. Passed.

Mr. WEST called up the Senate bill for the better organization of the District Courts of the United States within the State of Louisiana. Passed—yeas 34, nays 10.

Mr. BUCKINGHAM, from the Committee on Commerce reported favorably on the bill to provide for the establishment of life-saving stations and houses of refuge upon the sea and lake coasts of the United States, and to promote the efficiency of the life-saving service. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. WRIGHT, from the Judiciary Committee, reported with amendments the bill providing for the collection of money due the United States from the Pacific Railroad Company. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN reported favorably on the House bill fixing the time for the election of Representatives from the State of Pennsylvania to the Forty-fourth Congress. Passed.

The morning hour having expired, the CHAIR called up unfinished business, being the bill to provide for the sale of extra copies of public documents and for the distribution of regular official editions thereof.

Mr. MERRIMON offered an amendment authorizing Senators and Members to frank the documents now apportioned to them by law.

Mr. SHERMAN said it was evident that the bill could not be passed without debate, and he therefore moved that it be laid aside, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the bill to amend the customs revenue laws and to repeal moieties.

Mr. LOGAN asked that Wednesday next, after the expiration of the morning hour, be devoted to the consideration of bills from the Committee on Military Affairs. Agreed to.

The motion of Mr. Sherman was agreed to, and the Moiety bill was taken up.

Mr. BAYARD objected to the amendment of the Finance Committee, inserted as the fifth section, which authorizes the United States Attorney to examine the books, invoices or papers of defendants. In his opinion it impaired the constitutional rights of a citizen to compel him to criminate himself.

Mr. SHERMAN argued that the proposition was of vital importance. It did not impair the rights of the citizen, neither did it compel him to criminate himself, but only protected the government.

Mr. CAMERON said the idea of seizing the books and papers of merchants was horrible, and he would not vote for any such proposition.

Mr. WRIGHT advocated the adoption of the amendment and said the bill would be of no use without it. It prevented any unnecessary or improper persecution of the merchant, as books were not to be produced without an order from court.

Mr. SCOTT thought no honest merchant would object to this provision, as it would do away with the onerous feature of anything like arbitrary seizure. The object of the committee had been to prevent the recurrence of such a case as that of Phelps, Dodge & Co., and at the same time to provide the means by which dishonest importers could not evade their dues to the government.

Mr. BOUTWELL said that upon the general question of moieties he had expressed an official opinion more than four years ago. In his annual report as Secretary, in 1870, he submitted to Congress a bill for the abolition of the moiety system, and subsequently urged its passage. He still adhered to the opinion that the moiety system was a bad one, and ought to be abolished. He thought the proposed section a judicious one, and would therefore support it. He had no judgment to express in regard to the character and conduct of the firm of Phelps, Dodge & Co., mentioned in the course of the discussion, but wished to lay before the Senate certain facts which would justify what was done in reference to the claims the government had made against that firm. The vindication of the course of the administration was of more consequence than the vindication of any private person. One who had been employed by the firm went to a special agent of the department and laid before him what he called evidence of undervaluation of goods imported by the house of Phelps, Dodge & Co. He submitted documents to the agent, and when those documents were compared with the books of the firm, the evidence was conclusive. No matter what the motive was of the person formerly imployed by the firm. The agent of the department never had any knowledge of the relations of that clerk with the house until after the evidence referred to was presented. He (Boutwell) advised Dodge to go into court, where his testimony could be heard, and if it should then turn out that there was no intentional violation of law the Secretary of the Treasury had authority to remit the penalty in whole or in part. There was no pressure brought by the Treasury Department upon this house, but, on the contrary, the department delayed and postponed, to oblige the firm. Eminent counsel was employed to represent the house. He did not believe Dodge was himself responsible for the fault, but there was a mystery connected with the transactions of the firm. The invoices given at the custom houses did not conform to those on the private books of the firm. The Treasury Department did, from the beginning to the end, delay and postpone the payment of this money, to suit the convenience of the firm. If ever law was mercifully administered, it was in this case.

The amendment was then rejected, by a vote of 21 yeas to 26 nays, as follows:

YEAS.

Anthony, Gilbert, Pratt,
Boreman, Hamlin, Ramsey,
Boutwell, Harvey, Sargent,
Buckingham, Morrill, Vt., Scott,
Chandler, Morton, Sherman,
Ferry, Mich., Oglesby, Windom,
Flanagan, Pease, Wright—21.

NAYS.

Alcorn, Hager, Patterson,
Bayard, Hamilton, Md., Robertson,
Cameron, Howe, Saulsbury,
Carpenter, Johnston, Stevenson,
Conkling, Lewis, Stockton,
Conover, McCreery, Tipton,
Cooper, Merrimon, Wadleigh,
Davis, Mitchell, Washburne—26.
Goldthwaite, Norwood,

Some discussion ensued upon the fourth section of the bill as passed by the House, which provides that no payment shall be made to an informer in any case wherein judicial proceedings shall have been instituted, unless his claim to compensation shall have been established to the satisfaction of the court or judge having cognizance of such proceedings, and the value of his services duly certified by said court for the information of the Secretary of the Treasury, and it was passed without amendment.

The CHAIR announced as the committee of conference on the Deficiency Appropriation bill, Messrs. Sargent, Morrill, of Maine, and Kelly.

The House bill to provide for the publication of the revised statutes of the United States passed.

Pending discussion on the Moiety bill, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, moved to suspend the rules and take from the Speaker's table the Senate Civil Rights bill and refer it to the Judiciary Committee, with the right to report at any time. The motion was rejected—yeas, 136, nays, 18—not two-thirds voting in the affirmative.

Among those voting "no," were the following Republicans: Messrs. Banning, Bromberg, Butler, of Tennessee; Harrison, of Tennessee; Houghton, Lowndes, Phelps, Sener, Smith, of North Carolina; Stanard, Strait, Thomas, of Virginia, and Thornburg, of Tennessee.

Mr. CHAFFEE moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill for the admission of Colorado as a State. Passed. Yeas, 170; nays, 85.

The House then took up the Louisiana contested election case of Sheridan and Pinchback.

Speeches in support of the minority report were made by Messrs. SMITH, of New York, and SYPHER, and against it by Mr. LAMAR. The latter declared his belief that the interests of the great Republican party were not identified with the maintenance of the so-called government in Louisiana or of any kindred establishments in the Southern States. No party could endure the infamy and disgrace that had been brought upon the American name by those grotesque caricatures of government. The result of the war had been to establish the indissolubility of the American Union and the universality of freedom on the American continent; but the North was not satisfied with that. Congress has passed reconstruction measures and had sunk the iron deep into the heart and soul of the southern people, but the position of the southern people was that the doctrine of secession, the right of withdrawing from the Union, was extinguished and eliminated from the American system, and no longer constituted a part of the elements of the American government. The institution of slavery, with all its incidents, was dead, extinct, sunk in that sea which never gives up its dead, and the people of the South did not ask for its resuscitation. The enlightened people of the South would not, if they could, identify the interests of the country with an institution which stood utterly antagonistic to all the elements and living forces of modern civilization. [Applause.] They regarded the three last amendments of the Constitution as inviolable and sacred as the articles that were written by their forefathers.

The discussion closed with speeches from the two contestants, Messrs. Sheridan and Pinchback. The latter interested and amused the House with a discursive description of the Louisiana election, which he declared was in all respects a fraud.

Mr. DARRELL moved, as a substitute for the minority resolution, a resolution that Pinchback is entitled to a seat prima facia. The question was passed over, to be voted on to-morrow.

Mr. RUSK presented the conference report on the bill to revise the pension laws and the bill regulating pensions for total disabilities, which were agreed to.

Dead in a Well---Bright Crop Prospect---Large Shipment of Threshers.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

MANSFIELD, O., June 8, 1874.

Thos. Etzwiler, a carpenter, while descending a well near this city for the purpose of cleaning it, was overcome by the damp and fell to the bottom. Before he could be taken out, life was extinct. He leaves a family.

The weather could not be better for the growing crops. There promises to be a tremendous yield of everything, especially fruits, in this vicinity.

As an evidence of the coming business revival, the Aultman and Taylor Manufacturing Company, of this city, are now sending away in one shipment sixty-eight complete threshers, making seventeen car loads, of a value of over forty-nine thousand dollars. It is claimed to be the largest single shipment of threshers ever made.

The Storm Reaches Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, June 8.—Beloit was visited by a terrible storm this morning. The spire of the First Presbyterian church was demolished, and that of the Second Congregational church badly damaged. THE LEFT CENTER'S MOVE FOR DISSOLUTION.

PARIS, June 8.—The feeling at Versailles is gloomy. The proposal for the dissolution of the Assembly has been signed by one hundred and twenty-five deputies, who have hopes of securing, in addition, the signatures of one hundred and ninety-five members forming the Left Center. The motion for dissolution will be presented in the Chamber at the earliest opportunity. The Left Center is determined to have a settlement of the question, Republic or dissolution, before the August adjournment.

PLANS OF THE LEFT CENTER.

LONDON, June 9, 5 A. M.—The Times' correspondent at Paris telegraphs that it is expected that M. Dufoure, in a few days, will ask the Committee on Constitutional Laws to come to a vote on the first article of the bill introduced May 1873, providing that the government consist of the Senate, Chamber of Representatives and President of the Republic. If the committee rejects the articles, the Left Center will move in the Assembly to refer a similar proposition to a new commission. Should this fail, the Left Center, as a last resort, will move a dissolution of the Assembly. In the event of an adverse vote on the motion, the Deputies belonging to all sections of the left may possibly resign en masse.

THE POLICE HUNTING FOR A MISSING EARL.

LONDON, June 8.—The Earl of Yarborough, who is said to be frequently "drunk as a lord," is again missing, and the police are making earnest search to find him. A short time afterwards the Deputy returned to the room, but the Earl was not there. Since then no one who knows him has seen him.

Senator Pomeroy's Trial for Bribery.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, June 8.—The case of the State vs. ex-Senator Pomeroy, for bribery came up in the District Court to-day and was postponed to July 27, for the reason that the attorneys for the defense are obliged to attend the federal court for the next two weeks. Petitions have been circulating throughout the State for some weeks, praying that a nolle pros be entered in the case. These were signed by York, Simpson, Johnson and Harton, who planned Pomeroy's exposure, and numerous other citizens all over the State. They were presented to Judge Morton, but were ineffectual, and the case will certainly be tried on the day fixed.

Further Reform in the Treasury Department.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS LAST NIGHT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8, 1874.

New Indian Commission Possible.

It is stated that the Secretary of the Interior contemplates proposing a new Indian Commission, to take the place of the old one just resigned. It is further said that the new Commission will be composed entirely of Quakers, in order to give them a full opportunity to demonstrate the practicability of their method of dealing with the Indian tribes. It will be remembered that, pending the preparation of the Indian Appropriation bill, it was proposed to invest the late Commission with increased powers in the management of Indian affairs, and the committee had so far acted as to introduce a provision giving the Commission supreme control in making contracts for supplies. The Secretary of the Interior, however, opposed this, on the ground of interfering with his authority over his department, and the provision was cancelled.

The Senate Committee on Claims

do not expect to take up any more new cases, but will probably be able to report, on Wednesday, the bill to pay the awards of the Southern Claims Commission, amounting to nearly seven hundred thousand dollars.

The Pittsburgh Cases

for the re-embursement of moneys expended during the rebellion in the construction of defenses, were returned by Senator Boutwell when he left the committee, and have since remained unnoticed.

Another Reform in the Treasury Department proposed by the new Secretary, is the consolidation of the supernumerary bureaus established by Boutwell. This will restore business to its legitimate channels.

The Republican Caucus

to-night passed the usual resolution instructing the delegates of the State to name a member to serve on the Congressional Campaign Committee. No other business was transacted. Mr. Kelley moved to abolish the Congressional Committee, for the reason that he did not believe in continuing a committee to distribute documents representing the views of only a fraction of the party; that on the finances there was a diversity of opinions, and it would not be fair to have only one side represented. The reply was made that there was no division on the subject mentioned; that the Republican party would go on fulfilling its mission. When the motion was put, it did not receive a single vote, Mr. Kelley himself changing his mind on the subject.

The Steamboat and Treasury Bills.

The Committee on Commerce has refused to allow Senator Chandler to report the steamboat bill. Messrs Conkling, Boutwell and Buckengham back up the opposition. An attempt was made to enlist Secretary Bristow in favor of the Treasury bill so called, but failed,

The Civil Rights Bill.

The advocates of the Civil Rights bill met with another defeat to-day. Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, made his usual weekly motion to take up the Senate bill and refer it to the Judiciary Committee, but a two-third vote could not be obtained. Last week only eight Representative voted against the bill; to-day the number voting against it was increased to twelve, and three or four of those voting on the former occasion were not present to-day and are not recorded. Forty-seven Republicans and fifteen Democrats were absent. One reason of the opposition, is the belief that the President will veto the bill. His friends do not wish to force this issue upon him. It is clear that no two-third vote can be had, and therefore the only chance for the friends of the bill, is to have a morning hour, after which they may go to business on the Speaker's table, when a majority vote would take up the Senate bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8, 1874.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate: John F. Lang, Surveyor of Customs at St. Louis; Chas B. Gordon, Register at Fargo, formerly Pembina, D. T. Postmasters—Jno. W. Marshall, Plattsmouth, Neb.; H. O. Paine, Freemont, Neb.; H. W. Fleury, Prescott, Arizona; Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stevenson, Greenville, O.

GENERAL M'COOK'S NOMINATION.

The Senate Committee on Territories, having concluded an examination of the additional charges against General McCook, to-day decided, by a majority vote, to again report favorably on his nomination to be Governor of Colorado.

NO ACTION ON THE CURRENCY BILL.

The committee of conference on the Currency bill held a three hours' meeting this morning, but came to no final conclusion. There are numerous conflicting rumors as to the past and probable actions of the committee, but the members continue to decline to give any information on the subject.

Lutheran Church Trial---Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago Railroad.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

LIMA, O., June 8, 1874.

The Lutheran church trial, which has occupied our Court of Common Pleas for the past eight days, closed this evening. Owing to the large number of papers and documents submitted as evidence and the amount of evidence taken at the trial, the Judge will not give his decision before next term of court.

The Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago Railroad to-day commenced running trains through to Defiance from the junction of the Lake Erie division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

INDIANA, PA.

Sitting of the County Courts.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

INDIANA, PA., June 8, 1874.

The County Courts met to-day, Judges Logan, Dieltz and Irvin presiding. Business was large, especially in liquor cases. The case of the Commonwealth vs. Miss Roberts for infanticide will occupy the greater part of the week.

CASUALTIES.

Mine Explosion Near Wilkesbarre—Three Men Killed and Several Wounded.

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 8.—Last night an explosion occurred at No. 1 shaft of the Nauticock mines, burning three miners and setting fire to the breaker, which was soon destroyed. While fighting the flames, some burning timbers fell upon William Vividu, killing him instantly. Alexander Ale, Charles Keller, Hawley Walsh, Tom Lowell, Tom McManus; Henry Reimensnyder and Lorenz Krebs, of the gang who were also engaged in fighting the fire, were overcome by gas and had to be carried from the mine. The first two were insensible when brought to fresh air, and have since died. The others are doing well.

The Louisiana Sufferers.

NEW ORLEANS, June 8.—Governor Kellogg, to-day, sent the following message to General Belknap, Secretary of War: "The Relief Committee report that the suffering from the overflow remains unabated in the Atchofologa, Lafourche and Ouachita valleys, though there is some abatement on the banks of the Mississippi. The committee are issuing fully forty thousand rations daily, and in some districts are compelled to restrict their relief to women and children, even where work is not attainable for the able bodied. If the general government would order the issue of twenty thousand daily rations from the first appropriation, it would avert much suffering."

INTERESTING facts given in a Liverpool paper prove that the working classes of that borough—and they are not exceptional—have become meat eaters to such an extent that the consumption of bread has seriously and proportionately declined. The dearer food has supplanted the cheaper. In one street the butchers' shops during fifteen years have increased from seven to thirty; while the number of bakers' shops has remained the same. Oat meal, also, which formerly was largely sold, is now scarcely bought at all by the poor. No more striking proof could be given of the general advance of the workingmen in material comfort.

Dealers Beware

The Great Chicago Heresy Trial.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

It is generally understood that the great Chicago heresy trial is not ended by the withdrawal of Professor Swing from the Presbyterian Church; and it certainly should not rest in so impotent a conclusion. The real question at issue is one of vital importance to humanity. This question seems to have been lost sight of by the general public. People have taken sides as if the point at issue were the Westminster Confession of Faith. Is it scriptural or is it not? Is it consistent with the Christianity of the nineteenth century, or is it not? Now, since both parties have accepted this confession, as the scriptural exponent of his Christianity, the issues raised are outside the question and cannot properly be brought into it; and if this matter is brought up before a Synod or General Assembly, for sake of the land in which we live, if for no higher cause, I trust the issue will be fairly met. The question is an old one, and, stripped of all verbiage, is just this:

Does the end justify the means? Ten thousand times it has been answered, by Protestanism, in the negative. On this issue she has met her Roman foe, and, for centuries, contended with the "Society of Jesus." Will this large sect of Protestants go over to the Jesuits, as the Chicago Presbytery has done? Will Presbyterians, for the sake of building up an organization, consent that men shall take oaths with mental reservations? The ordination vow of a preacher is, certainly, as solemn as any judicial oath, and is understood to be so. A man who would take it knowing that, to him, it implies a falsehood, would not be a safe witness in any case between man and man, and he who has mystified himself with metaphysical disquisitions, until he is unconscious of the violence done to plain truth, when he vows that he does believe, and will teach that which he does not believe, and does not propose to teach, has taken an important step toward becoming a blind leader of the blind.

Whatever faults we, "of this enlightened age," may find with the Westminster divines, we must all acknowledge that they were not Jesuits, they were not cowards. True, they were in advance of their age and of the popular church organizations of their day, but they were not afraid to say so. They were clear in their convictions as well as strong. They knew, exactly, what they did believe, and made no effort to popularize their faith by expressing it in language capable of two intrepretations. Their confession bears no resemblance to an "enlightened nineteenth century" political platform constructed to catch votes. It is not, in the least, like the oracles of the Grecian gods or predictions of a Gipsy fortune teller, which may mean anything or nothing. On the contrary, the strongest, most definite convictions, are clothed in the strongest, most definite language, so that no one, of ordinary understanding, can mistake their meaning.

They believed, and taught, that no soul can be saved without hearing of, and believing in Jesus as the Christ, that the heathen are damned, that non-elect infants are damned, that damnation is inconceivable eternal torment, that this torment is inflicted for the glory of God. They believed and taught that Christ died for the elect alone, and that the elect is a very, very small portion of mankind, and that no man can, by any possibility, do anything to merit, or secure his own salvation. "We are saved by grace alone, and that not of ourselves, but the gift of God." Now, those who pretend to reconcile this faith with the Auburn Confession, of New School Presbyterians, or with David Swing's Confession as declared before the Chicago Presbytery, are justly chargeable with equivocation, with wresting words from their known meaning, with a gross perversion of the truth. The two creeds are as irreconcileable as the Infallibility of the Pope and the right of private judgment. They are as opposite as the North and South poles. It is impossible one can believe a proposition and its contradiction, at one and the same time, and the attempt to do, or pretense of doing so, must be highly injurious, if not ruinous, to the moral rectitude of him who makes it.

The example which the church sets to the world, by thus tampering with truth for the good of an organization, must be incalculably mischievous. Is it any wonder that politicians take oaths of office which they do not intend to observe, when preachers take ordination vows in the same way? Is it strange that our courts of inquiry are constantly finding witnesses who admit or divulge important truths by accident, when the moral tone of our churches has been lowered to such a standard that few people are shocked by the solemn profession of a creed believed, by the professor, to be false or even monstrous?

Is it not time that preachers and laymen should learn to hold the truth in the love of it, to stop confessing any creed with their lips, while their hearts are far from it; to tell the plain truth at all times; to let their yea be yea and their nay nay?

JANE GRAY SWISSHELM.

An Antiquarian Discovery—The Remains of a Forgotten Race.

The staid citizens of Rockford, Ill., are quite excited over the recent discovery of certain pits dug, it is believed, by mound-builders many centuries ago. It is a pretty generally accepted theory that the valley of the Mississippi and the region of the great lakes was inhabited ages ago by a race of people who were in many respects civilized and intelligent. Who these people were that thus lived and flourished, and what became of them, are questions which have puzzled the scientific men of the present age. The mounds, the pits and the carvings of stone are all that remain. The people once powerful have passed away, and no inscription has yet been found which gives us a clue to their identity. The banks of Rock river, a beautiful, inviting stream, on which Rockford is situated, are prolific in what are known as Indian mounds. A few months ago, a farmer living six miles south of the city, was, it seems, directed by "spiritual influences" to dig into the western cavity of his farm, where he would find an ossuary, and many other relics that would repay him for his trouble. He immediately set to work, and after proceeding downward through nine feet of soft loam, said that he came to the limestone which underlies all that portion of the State. Here, however, he encountered no resistance, and soon found that he was really in a spot which had been formerly excavated. There was a regular limestone wall, almost perfectly square, on all sides, the interior being filled with soft earth and decayed leaves. At a depth of twenty feet he came upon a layer of bones, and further down he reached various other reliquiæ, which indicated the presence of human beings at some remote period. These consisted of arrow heads and heavy implements sharpened at the edges. The farmer and his hired men continued to excavate to the depth of ninety feet, when the workmen struck solid rock, but found a passage fifteen feet high and nearly four feet wide, running in a northeasterly direction. There is much speculation as to where this curious hole leads to, and many are the suppositions relating to it. The pit has been visited by large crowds, and Rockford has quite a sensation to talk about.

The Door Test.

During the last ten years, in the winter, according to our record, we have noticed the manner in which 1,000 persons who have called for work have opened, shut, or not shut our store door; this, you may say, is a futile and useless undertaking, but we entertain a very different opinion. What are the facts and deductions?

First. Out of 1,000 persons recorded, 335 opened the door and shut it carefully when they came in and when they went out.

Second. Two hundred and twenty-six opened it in a hurry and made an attempt to shut it, but did not, and merely pulled it to when they went out.

Third. Three hundred and three did not attempt to shut it at all, either on coming in or going out.

Fourth. Ninety-six left it open when they came in, but, when reminded of the fact, made ample apology and shut it when they went out.

Fifth. One hundred and two opened it in a great hurry, and then slamed it to violently, but left it open when they went out.

Sixth. Twenty came in with "How do you do?" or "Good evening, sir," and these went through the operation of wiping their feet on the mat, but did not shut the door when they went out.

Remarks.—We have employed men out of all the above classes, and during that time have had an opportunity of judging of their merits, &c. The first class, of 335, were those who knew their trade and commenced and finished their work in a methodical manner; were quiet, had little to say during hours, and were well approved by those for whom they did their work. They were punctual to time, and left nothing undone which they were ordered to do. They did not complain at trifles, and in all respects they were reliable men, and were kind and obliging in their general conduct.—Christian Union.

APROPOS to clubs, the latest New York idea is a "Church Club." Here is, indeed, a capital idea. It is proposed to secure a comfortable club house, or room, where all the papers will be kept on file, a library instituted, and restaurant facilities provided. Its membership is not to be entirely local, but clergymen and others residing out of town will be admitted on election and the payment of a regular fee. It is believed that such an institution will be found of great benefit to country clergymen and others visiting the city. The experiment has been tried successfully in other cities, and there is no reason why it should not succeed in Gotham. At all events, the experiment will be tried.

BUTLER COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

BUTLER, PA., June 8, 1874.

The Republican Convention of this county held its session here to-day. McCandless was nominated for Judge by a majority of forty-seven over McJunkin. Messrs. Campbell and Waldron were named for legislative representatives, and Captain A. Wilson for Senator.

The following card appears in the New Castle Journal:

Thirteen Democrats of Carbon county aspire to the nomination for Congress.

We understand that Warren county has called her nominating convention for the 29th inst.

Captain Dyer Loomis, of North East, Erie county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly.

The Hon. D. M. Van Auken is one of the candidates for the President Judgeship in the Wayne and Pike district.

John McFarland, Esq., is said to be one of the "coming men" for the Democratic nomination for Assembly in Northumberland county.

The Tioga county Republican Committee met last week and appointed Hon. B. B. Strang and Hon. John I. Mitchell as Representative delegates from that county to the State Convention.

The Republican primaries in Butler county came off on Saturday, and were hotly contested especially for President Judge. The McCandless men claim a majority of about 100 over McJunkin. The return judges will meet to-day.

The Erie Dispatch, the Harrisburg Telegraph, the Allentown Chronicle, the Mauch Chunk Gazette and other Republican journals in different parts of the State, cordially indorse Auditor General Harrison Allen, and advocate his renomination.

Hon. S. Ross, the able Representative from this (new) district, has served his constituents with fidelity, and will be renominated. He is one of the few men in Congress who has represented the best interests of his constituents.—Cameron County Press.

Trunkey, of Venango, has more county delegations already instructed for him for Judge of the Supreme Court than any other Democratic candidate. Mercer, Venango, Crawford, Butler, Jefferson, and other Western counties have already elected delegates for him.

In the Congressional district composed of Indiana, Jefferson, Armstrong, Clarion and Forest counties, which is largely Republican, the following candidates of that political faith have been announced; Harry White and John Graff, of Indiana; Silas J. Marlin, of Jefferson; T. B. Faulk, of Armstrong; Hon. James Campbell and David Maclay, of Clarion.

Everything is not lovely with the Democracy of Clarion county. Brown, of the Clarion Democrat, has succeeded in having a call issued for an early convention—June 22,—and the Clarion Jacksonian waxes wroth, charging Brown with having been trained and schooled in the Whig, Know Nothing and Abolition parties. Out of this good may come to the Republicans, if they present a united front.

John W. Ryon, Esq., Hon. Wm. M. Randall, Hon. Myer Strouse and Hon. J. M. Wetherill are publicly announced as aspirants to the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district. This will make a square four-handed fight that promises to be of more than ordinary amusement to the people of this district. It would be rather humiliating to them all should Hon. F. W. Hughes step in and capture the coveted prize. Stranger things have happened.—Minersville Republican.

It is thought that M. M. L'Velle, of Ashland, will be a Republican candidate for State Senator from Schuylkill county, this fall. The Minersville Republican says: Although the district is strongly Democratic, we believe his personal popularity will gain for him a sufficient number of votes from the opposition to elect him, if nominated. The prospects are certainly not encouraging to a member of the minority party, and it requires a great nerve on the part of any man to enter the contest against such fearful odds.

The Lebanon Courier says: "The Democrats in some of the Western States are trying to prostitute the Grangers to use to ride into power on. They will no doubt try that dodge wherever they are in the minority. Victor E. Piollet, an old Democratic party hack in this State, who has been trying to be restored to office for years past, without success, has joined the Grangers, and it is said hopes through using them to get a fat office. Honest Republicans who think of joining the Grangers, should keep an eye on the Democratic manipulators."

"It is, perhaps, proper for me, under existing circumstances, in reply to those who have solicited me to become a candidate for the Legislature, to repeat, what I have said heretofore, that whenever my fellow citizens shall think that my humble services, in any public capacity, will be to their interests, and by their action place me there, my best efforts will be devoted to their best interests. But I cannot become a candidate in any other way. I am no adventurer among you, my principles and ability are known to you, and you, and not I, are the judges as to whether they should be brought into requisition in the public service or not.

DAVID SANKEY.

Our new Congressional District (the 20th) is composed of the counties of Centre, Clinton, Clearfield, Elk, Mifflin and Union. Our Senatorial District (the 34th) is composed of Centre, Clinton and Clearfield counties, and the Judicial District comprises the same counties. Our county is entitled to two members of the Legislature under our new reform Constitution. Look out for heavy taxes and numerous candidates. The Congressional and Senatorial districts are heavily Democratic, and our county is considered by the Democrats as sufficiently certain to make men anxious for the nomination. The names of the candidates are legion. We give a few: For Assembly the following gentlemen are willing to stand the race: Fred. Kurtz, editor Center Hall Reporter, H. D. Van Pelt, Dr. D. J. Hillibish, Col. Jno. Rishel, Gen. George Buchanan, B. F. Herring, S. S. Wolf, Wm. Alexander, S. T. Shugart, (Bellefonte), Capt. J. A. Hunter, Chester Munson, H. Y. Stitzer, Esq., (Bellefonte), Dr. Fisher, (Zion), J. P. Gepheart, (Bellefonte), Daniel Smith, (Penn township), J. D. Moyer, (Aaronsburg.) For Senate we have Hon. P. G. Meek and A. Hay, Esq.; and for Congress C. T. Alexander, Esq.—Brown's Bellefonte Republican.

General.

Another Maryland Congressman—Mr. E. K. Wilson—has declined a renomination.

A rumor is afloat, which may or may not have a basis of truth, that the Democrats will unite in support of inflation and make it a plank in their party platform. Such a move would have the merit of shrewdness at least. On that issue they could carry every Southern State, most of the Western and some of the Middle States. There can be little doubt that they could carry the country, if the Republican party should declare in favor of an immediate return to hard money, thus bringing the question of contraction or inflation squarely before the people. It requires no small conceit for a man to say that he knows precisely how much currency this great nation of forty millions of people needs to do its business with. On the other hand, it ought not to be considered an excessively modest thing for a statesman to rise on the floor of Congress and declare that he did not assume the prerogative of fixing a limit to the currency, but that he was willing to vote for a free-banking law, which would enable the people to decide for themselves how much currency is needed to transact the business of the country.—Erie Dispatch.

The Baltimore American says: Who shall reconcile the political differences of political Democracy? In one State it is a hard-money party, and in another it runs wild for inflation; here it raises its voice for the protection of American industry, and over the way it anathematizes tariffs and proclaims free trade the panacea for all our financial and industrial troubles. This diversity of principles makes it troublesome for the public men of the party to know exactly when they are on or off of its platform. Here, for instance, is the distinguished representative of the Democracy of the Second Congressional District of this State. The other day he rose in his place in Congress and made a speech in favor of increasing the duty on chromate and bi-chromate of potassa. He championed it as a Maryland industry; declared that his constituents were interested in it to the extent of a $10,000 monthly pay-roll; denounced the foreign monopolists who were striving to crush out this struggling industry which appealed to Congress for protection, and patriotically pictured the time when we would snap our bi-chromated fingers in the face of the British lion. Mr. O'Brien was successful, and has doubtless congratulated himself on that success. But now comes the New York World, supposed to be the clock by which Democrats take their political meals, and with brutal insolence characterizes Mr. O'Brien as "a sort of half-baked member, supposed to repaesent the Democracy of Maryland, who has several times tried the patience of the House with ridiculous propositions and still more ridiculous speeches." Will the blood of the O'Briens stand that? "Half-baked," indeed! The World is in dense ignorance. Mr. O'Brien is the most thoroughly done Democrat in his district.

COPARTNERSHIP.

The New Law Regulating Limited Liabilities.

We give below the full text of the new law regulating copartnerships of limited liability as it passed the Legislature;

An act authorizing the formation of partnership associations in which the capital subscribed shall alone be responsible for the debts of the association, except under certain circumstances.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., That when any three or more persons may desire to form a partnership association for the purpose of conducting any lawful business or occupation within the United States or elsewhere, whose principal office or place of business shall be established and maintained within this State, by subscribing and contributing capital thereto, which capital shall alone be liable for the debts of such association, it shall and may be lawful for such persons to sign and acknowledge, before some officer competent to take the acknowledgment of deeds, a statement in writing, in which shall be set forth the full names of such persons and the amount of capital of said association subscribed for by each, the total amount of capital and when and how to be paid, the character of business to be conducted, and the location of the same, the association, with the word "limited" added thereto as part of the same, the contemplated duration of said association, which shall not in any case exceed twenty years, and the names of the officers of said association, selected in conformity with the provisions of this act; any amendment of said statement shall be made only in like manner, which said statement and amendments shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county.

SEC. 2. The members of any such partnership association shall not be liable, under any judgment, decree or order which shall be obtained against such association, or for any debt or engagement of such company, further or otherwise than is hereinafter provided; that is to say, if any execution, sequestration or other process in the nature of execution, either at law or in equity, shall have been issued against the property or effects of the company, and if there cannot be found sufficient thereof whereon to levy or enforce such execution, sequestration or other process, then such execution, sequestration or other process may be issued against any of the members to the extent of the portions of their subscriptions respectively in the capital of the association not then paid up: Provided always, That no such execution shall issue against any member except upon an order of court or of a judge of the court in which the action, suit or other proceeding shall have been brought or instituted, and the said court or judge may compel the production of the books of the association showing the names of the members thereof, and the amount of capital remaining to be paid upon their respective subscriptions, and from them or other sources of information ascertain the truth in regard thereto, and may order execution to issue accordingly, and the said association shall be and it is hereby required to keep a subscription list book for that purpose, and the same shall be open to inspection by the creditors and members of the association at all reasonable times.

SEC. 3. The word "limited" shall be the last word of the name of every partnership association formed under the provisions of this act, and every such association shall paint or affix and shall keep painted or affixed its name on the outside of every office or place in which the business of the association is carried on, in a conspicuous position, in letters easily legible, and shall have its full name mentioned in legible characters in all notices, advertisements and other official publications of such association, and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, checks, orders for money, bills of lading, invoices, receipts, letters and other writings used in the transaction of the business of the partnership association; Provided, That the omission of the word "limited" in the use of the name of the partnership association shall render each and every person participant in such omission, or knowingly acquiescing therein, liable for any indebtedness, damage or liability arising therefrom.

SEC. 4. Interests in said association shall be personal estate, and may be transferred under such rules and regulations as the association may prescribe, but no transferree of any interest, or the representatives of any decedent or of any insolvent, shall be entitled thereafter to any participation in the subsequent business of said association, unless he or she be elected thereto by a vote of a majority of the members in number and value of their interests, and change any of ownership, whether by sale, death, bankruptcy or otherwise, which shall not be followed by election to the association, shall entitle the owner only to his interest in the association at a price and upon terms to be mutually agreed upon; and in default of such agreement, the price and terms shall be fixed by an appraiser appointed by the court of common pleas of the proper county, subject to the approval of said court.

SEC. 5. There shall be at least one meeting of the members of the association in each year, at one of which there shall be elected not less than three nor more than five managers of said association, one of whom shall be the chairman, one the treasurer and one the secretary, or one may be both treasurer and secretary, who shall hold their respective offices for one year and until their successors are duly installed; and no debt shall be contracted or liability incurred for said association except by one or more of the said managers, and no liability for an amount exceeding five hundred dollars, except against the person incurring it, shall bind the said association unless reduced to writing and signed by at least two managers.

SEC. 6. The association may from time to time divide the profits of its business in such manner and in such an amount as a majority of its managers may determine, which profits so divided shall not at the time diminish or impair the capital of the said association; and any one consenting to a dividend which shall diminish or impair the capital, shall be liable to any person or persons interested or injured thereby to the amount of such diminution or impairment.

SEC. 7. It shall not be lawful for such association to loan its credit, its name or its capital to any member of said association, and for such loan to any other person or association the consent in writing of a majority in number and value of interest shall be requisite.

SEC. 8. Such association may be dissolved.

First. Whenever the period fixed for the duration of the association expires.

Second. Whenever, by a vote of a majority in number and value of interest, it shall be so determined, and notice of such winding up shall be given by publication in two newspapers published in the proper city or county at least six consecutive times, and immediately upon the commencement of said advertising said association shall cease to carry on its business, except so far as may be required for the beneficial winding up thereof.

SEC. 9. When any such partnership association shall be dissolved by the voluntary action thereof, its property shall be applied and distributed as follows:

First. To the payment of all debts for wages of labor.

Second. To the satisfaction of its other liabilities and indebtedness.

Third. After payment thereof, the same shall be distributed to and among the members thereof, in proportion to their respective interests in the following manner:

Fourth. Three liquidating trustees shall be elected by the members of the association, who shall have full power and authority to wind up the concern and distribute the net assets thereof among the members, under the direction of the Court of Common Pleas of the proper county.

SEC. 10. That no amendment, modification or repeal of this act shall affect anything duly done, right acquired, liability incurred or penalty, forfeiture or other punishment, incurred, or to be incurred, in respect of any offense against the provisions of this act, before such amendment, modification or repeal comes into operation.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1874.

THROUGHOUT the Treasury Department there seems to be a general looking for judgments to come.

ROCHEFORT sailed for Europe on Saturday, much to the relief of those who feared he might remain here to be lionized.

A "NATIONAL Convention of Farmers and Mechanics" is to assemble in Cincinnati to-day. The exact objects and purposes of the Convention are not yet apparent.

A NEW YORK paper pompously announces that to live in that city "is an education in itself." Possibly, but a mighty poor one; its principal feature being a decided laziness of morality.

THEY have a candidate for a Republican nomination to the Legislature, in Philadelphia, named J. B. FITE. Any one treading on the tail of his coat can be accommodated. All his friends stand ready for fight.

POMEROY, the ex-Senator from Kansas, is not to be tried on the charge of bribery preferred against him. The prosecution has been abandoned, and the world will never know whether it should believe him guilty or innocent.

WASHINGTON city boasts that its mortality rate is lower than that of any other city in the country. Probable; but still not remarkable. Its inhabitants are chiefly composed of place-holders, the tenacity of whose grip on life and office are proverbial.

CHICAGO is terribly vexed over the contemplated removal of the United States Army headquarters from Washington to its rival, St. Louis. There is a dreadful feeling of jealousy between these two cities—but it is a mere toss up as to which is Sodom and which Gomorrah.

THE Iron and Steel Bulletin, of Philadelphia, complains that Congress has done and will do nothing to relieve the country from its business troubles. It is the misfortune of Congress to differ with the President as to what should be done; and it must either give up its own judgment, or be compelled to do nothing.

AN ADJOURNED session of the Rhode Island Legislature will be held to-day, for the purpose of electing a United States Senator to succeed Senator SPRAGUE, whose term of office expires on the fourth of next March. There are eight candidates in the field, and a long and tedious contest seems quite probable.

EX-ASSISTANT SECRETARY SAWYER, of the Treasury Department, was a sub-master in a Boston school before the war, and, subsequently, Principal of the Charlestown High School. The best thing he can do is to resume the Professorial horn-book, and teach his pupils how to decline office—not merely, however, out of the grammar.

IS IS intimated that General Butler is actually becoming devout. And, indeed, he may well have serious thoughts. Recent events in Congress should have done much to impress him, in more senses than one, with the truth of the well-known lines:

> "Friend after friend departs,—
> Who has not lost a friend?
> There is no union here of hearts,
> That finds not here an end."

THE North Carolina excitement is again renewed, Old Baldy being once more in a volcanic throe. Several distinct shocks were felt last week. The general election in that State occurs on the sixth of August, and if Bald Mountain will only have the goodness to be moderately eruptive in the meantime, the Republicans will be pretty certain to sweep the State clean.

THE Senate Committee on Territories decided, on Saturday, to recommend the passage of the House bill to admit Mexico as a State, and yesterday the House voted, by a large majority, to admit Colorado into the Union of States. Both of these Territories have been banging away importunately at the doors of the Union for years, and it would do them no harm whatever if they were detained on the outside for a little while longer.

THE Troy Press, Democratic, "ventures to say" that when the history of the last ten years is written "the world will stand in amazement at the patience of the South and at the abounding meanness of the North." We "venture to say" that every sensible person who has come across the above ebullition of Bourbon malignity and silliness, will "stand in amazement" at the idea that its author was not long ago consigned to a lunatic asylum.

FOR the simple reason that Northern capitalists—most of whom have been supporters of the administration—hold a considerable proportion of the bonds of the Southern States, the Satanic New York Sun would be pleased to see a general repudiation of public indebtedness "by those States which have suffered most from spoliation." DANA appears to take infinite satisfaction in proving himself a member in good standing of the demoniac family.

"THE Mayor of Pittsburgh, who has excited the ire of all crusadedom by his operations against the praying bands of that city, is a Republican. If he were a Democrat the howls of the holy would shake the continent."—Cleveland Plaindealer.

The Mayor of Pittsburgh is a Democrat, and was elected in opposition to the regular Republican candidate. If the Plaindealer were a fair-minded and sensible paper, the rejoicings of those whom its malignant imbecility now disgusts, would thrill the continent.

"LOOK out for the locomotive." In a suit against the Michigan Central Railroad Company, instituted for the recovery of damages for injuries inflicted by a train whilst the plaintiff was walking on the defendant's railroad track, the United States District Court has just ruled that a person walking on such a track was there at his own peril, and that if the conductor, engineer, and such employees upon the train swore that they did not see him, there was no liability for damages, even if death ensued from the injuries.

THE imports, exclusive of specie, at the port of New York, for the week ending last Saturday, amounted to $8,265,338, against $6,382,231, for the corresponding week last year. The total imports since the first of January foot up $186,739,277, against $198,933,714 for the corresponding period of 1873. The exports, exclusive of specie, for the past week amount to $5,158,171, against $5,396,442 for the corresponding week of 1873. The total exports from the first of January reach $117,839,033, against $116,725,078, same time last year.

LAST Saturday Congressman HOLMAN, a Democratic member from Indiana, undertook to lecture the House for the extravagance of its appropriations. HOLMAN is probably a relative of the wrathy Deacon who, getting out of patience with his irreligious neighbors, prayed: "O LORD, sink the whole of Standish Neck!" "No, good LORD, stop! I'm too fast! All but lot No. fifty, and a road to mill." Lot No. fifty was this Christian's farm. One of the largest appropriations that was ever forced into the River and Harbor bill was placed there by HOLMAN himself.

IT IS intimated that Hon. MONTGOMERY BLAIR will probably be the Democratic candidate for the Sixth Maryland district, his nomination being in furtherance of the Trans-Allegheny Canal scheme, which will bring a strong interest to his support. The agitation of the subject in Congress, and the passage of the WINDOM resolutions for the survey of national routes of cheap transportation, among which this canal project is included, will give the scheme prominence, and Mr. BLAIR, being an active manager of the enterprise, will derive some strength from this consideration.

HARDLY any public event of the season promises to be attended with so many historic ceremonies, characters and reminiscences as the reunion in Chicago of the old-time anti-slavery heroes, which commences to-day and continues during three days. The proceedings will consist of addresses pertaining to the origin, progress and triumph of the Anti-Slavery Reform, with biographical sketches of prominent actors in the reform; personal recollections and reminiscences, and singing the old songs of liberty. Many distinguished men from various parts of the country will be present, and we can well understand how the hearts of these grizzled workers for humanity will burn within them as they recal to each other the incidents, and trace again the progress of the great movement which, once derided as fanaticism, has culminated in the freedom of the enslaved, the unity of the country, and the recognition of the political rights of those in whose behalf the work was undertaken. Then, it was a little grain of mustard seed; now, its branches overshadow the whole land.

THE TURNERBUND.

While we all know something of the German singing unions among us, and many Americans are accustomed to take considerable interest in their proceedings, few of us know or care much about those other German associations, the Turner unions. We have met with compatriots of fair intelligence who supposed the societies referred to, to be political, or politico-religious clubs, and we have heard of a respectable citizen who never suspected a Turner union to be anything else than a society for the cultivation of dexterity in the use of the turning lathe. Doubtless these are extreme examples of mental obfuscation, but there is no exaggeration in the statement that Americans in general are much less well informed than they ought to be concerning associations of foreign origin which are to be met with here and there all over the country, and which are constantly increasing in number and importance.

The Congress or General Assembly of "the North American Turnerbund" held its sessions, a few days ago, in Rochester, New York. From a report for 1873-74, it appears that the property of the Bund amounts to nearly three millions of dollars; that the Bund consists of twenty-six circles, which, on the 1st of January, 1874, contained a hundred and ninety-three vereine or separate unions, with thirteen thousand, seven hundred and forty-one members. As of local interest the fact may be mentioned that the circle which takes its name from the city of Pittsburgh consists of ten Unions, or Societies, with nine hundred and seven members, of whom six hundred and seventy-six are citizens of the United States. While it is true, as stated above, that Turner Unions are constantly increasing in number and importance, the report before us represents the increase as much less rapid and vigorous than good Turners could desire. In fact, the interest of scientific gymnastics would clearly seem to languish somewhat among young American Germans. It may be that many of them, like most of the young men born in the country, early discover that after attending faithfully to the occupation by which they earn bread and hope to earn fortune, they have little if any superfluous energy to expend upon the difficult performances of the Turners' hall. Hence it is hardly remarkable that the Union sometimes becomes chiefly an association for social intercourse, while its proper exercises become a mere means of occasional amusement. Where this change takes place, the members are not likely to take in the original object of their society either the degree or the kind of interest which would prompt them to influence the "foreign," that is, the American "element" in its favor.

At the recent meeting in Rochester, a committee appointed for the purpose, made a number of suggestions with the view of increasing the interest and the public utility of the Turner unions in this country. As the action of the committee was adopted by the assembly, the suggestions referred to may serve to enlighten some readers as to the purpose of the Turner unions. One object strongly recommended to the unions is to exercise as much influence as possible on the public schools and to oppose whatever influence might tend or be intended to hinder their free and proper working. Also to encourage and support good private schools; introducing them where none exists or where the public schools do not answer reasonable expectations, and to establish evening schools and Sunday schools for the benefit of adults as well as children. The committee further recommend that at least one evening in every month be devoted by the Union to intellectual improvement. Short, popular lectures on scientific, and especially on historical subjects, are mentioned as one mode of utilizing the time. The unions are also advised to set apart a certain proportion of their income for the establishment of libraries, and to see that the books provided are of a solid, useful character: a most important suggestion which might with advantage be heeded by some other societies. The cultivation of music, especially of singing and the cultivation of declamation are recommended, with the injunction, however, that they be kept subordinate to the proper object of a Turners union.

As most people know, physical education, the development and training of the corporal powers, constitute the chief end of the Turners' art. The great defect of the Turners' unions in this country seems heretofore to have been that in their constitution intellectual culture was left wholly out of view, a defect which it is now proposed to remove. In Germany during the last fifty or sixty years the two educations have gone on together in the schools in a manner never elsewhere seen since among the Greeks of old, grammar, music and gymnastics formed the three indispensable and inseparable elements of a sound education. But outside of the German schools, gymnastics as systematized in Turnerism as we may call it, was assiduously cultivated and became a subject of almost national enthusiasm as one of the means by which the German people were to be trained and prepared for the punishing of the nation which had conquered and outraged Germany. To invigorate the bodies and to elevate the spirit of the German people in order to aid in the deliverance of the Fatherland from French domination were the avowed objects which F. L. JAHN set before him in elaborating and describing the system of gymnastic exercises most completely identified with the Turner unions. Places for performing the exercises were opened in central positions all over Northern Germany, and the system became an institution and the rage. Subsequent investigators, especially Dr. SPIESS, removed some defects from and made important additions to the JAHN system, founding the changes on a more profound study of nature and life. Then a Swede, P. H. LING, carried turning to a still higher pitch of elaboration and perfection. At present, it may be said to be a science and an art not wholly unworthy of the enthusiasm with which it is regarded by those who have been early trained in its principles and practice. Certainly when associated with appropriate apparatus and arrangements for intellectual culture, it would seem that the Turner union affords no mean school for the education of its members.

THE Republican National Convention which met at Chicago in 1860 classed Slavery and Polygamy together as "twin relics of barbarism." Slavery has been wiped out, but Polygamy remains. It is as much a relic of barbarism as it was in 1860, yet Congress dallies and trifles with it, allows its own laws classing Polygamy as a crime to be set at naught by admitting a polygamist to a seat upon its floor, and refuses to speak the word necessary for the extinction of what it has itself classed as a crime.

The singular claim has been set up that as Polygamy is a part of the Mormon religion, we are bound to tolerate it. If this be so, then any other crime may be adopted as a religious tenet, and sheltered behind religious intolerance. Murder is as much a part of the religion of a Thug as polygamy of a Mormon, and as conscientiously believed in; and there is no crime in the calendar that might not seek a similar protection. Religion that involves immorality and crime takes itself out of the category of toleration. For the mere opinions of Murmondom or for the holding of a belief in its creed, there should be the fullest toleration, but for any immorally or essentially wrong practice Mormons must be held to as strict an account as other people. A bigamist is a bigamist, whether he live in Pennsylvania or Utah, and he cannot plead his religion as a bar against punishment for his offense.

THE Philadelphia North American prides itself upon the fact that the Pennsylvania Railroad is a purely Pennsylvania institution. It says:

> Mr. Thomson himself was a native-born Pennsylvanian, descended from the stock brought over by William Penn with his first colony. Colonel Scott is also a native Pennsylvanian, identified with the State and city in his entire career, and wholly and solely developed into what he is by the opportunites here afforded. Mr. Roberts, who succeeds Colonel Scott as First Vice President, is, like Mr. Thomson, descended from the primitive Quaker stock. Mr. Cassatt, the general manager, and Mr. Kneass, the Assistant President, are also native Pennsylvanians. In the Board of Directors the same element has always predominated.
> In fact this great corporation was founded, built up, fortified and extended by the genius, the vigor, the capital, and the courage and faith of Philadelphians and Pennsylvanians, and within the limits of this Commonwealth it owes absolutely nothing to any other elements.

THE Illinois railway companies having apparently come to the conclusion that the United States Circuit Court will refuse to take the railroad cases out of the hands of the State Courts, have changed their base of operations, and are now trying to appeal from the decision made in the Court of Sangamon county, to the Supreme Court. Application was made to Judge ZANE, of Sangamon county, for a bill of exceptions, last week, and the whole question at issue between the railroads and the people of Illinois will thus, if the application be successful, come before the Supreme Court for settlement.

The same questions will simultaneously come up in the United States Circuit Court on the question of issuing an injunction to prohibit the enforcement of the Wisconsin Railroad law. This is expected to be argued about the 20th inst.

THE publication lately made of the President's views on Finance, in a semi-official form, has caused considerable excitement and irritation at Washington. It seems to have convinced no one, and the attitude of Congress towards the President is that of irreconcilability. Nothing that Congress is willing to pass can receive the executive approval, and a sufficient majority cannot be obtained to carry any measure over the veto; so that financial matters are likely to remain in statu quo for the present. Congress is for expansion, in some form, and the President is for resuming specie payments; and, between the two, nothing will be done. Congress adjourns on the 22d; and the people may as well make up their minds to a continuance of the present condition of things until the meeting of a new Congress in 1875.

SENATOR THURMAN is of opinion that "the hope of the Democratic party lies in adherence to Democratic principles. Whenever it wanders off after strange gods it incurs defeat, and it will ever be so." Just so; and now tell us about these same imperishable "principles." Are they akin to those of Governor LESLIE, of Kentucky, who has already begun talking about "the disruption of the Union at no distant day" as under certain circumstances "inevitable"—these circumstances being, substantially, a continuance of the Republican party in power? A good many people would like to know, you know.

A London letter to the California News Letter tells a pathetic story of two California poets stranded in Rome, where they are patiently awaiting remittances to enable them to pursue their travels. ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

An Interesting Memorial—A Letter from Mr. Lincoln when a Young Man.

We find in the Louisville Commercial of the 7th inst. the following letter written by Abraham Lincoln when yet a young man:

BLOOMFIELD, ILL, September 27, 1841.

Miss Mary Speed, Louisville, Ky.:

MY FRIEND—Having resolved to write to some of your mother's family, and not having the express permission of any one of them to do so, I have had some little difficulty in determining on which to inflict the task of reading what I now feel must be a most dull and silly letter; but when I remembered that you and I were something of cronies while I was at Farmington, and that while there I was under the necessity of shutting you up in a room to prevent your committing an assault and battery upon me, I instantly decided that you should be the devoted one.

I assume that you have not heard from Joshua and myself since we left, because I think it doubtful whether he has written.

You remember there was some uneasiness about Joshua's health when we left. That little indisposition of his turned out to be nothing serious; and it was pretty nearly forgotten when we reached Springfield. We got on board the steamboat Lebanon in the locks of the canal, about 12 o'clock M. of the day we left, and reached St. Louis the next Monday at 8 P. M. Nothing of interest happened during the passage, except the vexatious delays occasioned by the sand-bars be thought interesting. By the way, a fine example was presented on board the boat for contemplating the effect of condition upon human happiness. A gentleman had purchased twelve negroes in different parts of Kentucky, and was taking them to a farm in the South. They were chained six and six together. A small iron clevis was around the left wrist of each, and this fastened to the main chain by a shorter one, at a convenient distance from the others, so that the negroes were strung together precisely like so many fish upon a trot-line. In this condition they were being separated forever from the scenes of their childhood, their friends, their fathers and mothers and brothers and sisters, and many of them from their wives and children, and going into perpetual slavery, where the lash of the master is proverbially more ruthless and unrelenting than any other where; and yet amid all these distressing circumstances, as we would think them, they were the most cheerful and apparently happy creatures on board. One whose offense, for which he had been sold, was an over-fondness for his wife, played the fiddle almost continually; and the others danced, sung, cracked jokes and played various games with cards from day to day. How true it is that "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," or, in other words, that He renders the worst of human conditions tolerable, while He permits the best to be nothing better than tolerable. To return to the narrative. When we reached Springfield, I stayed but one day, when I started on this tedious circuit where I now am. Do you remember my going to the city, while I was in Lentucky, to have a tooth extracted, and making a failure of it? Well, that same old tooth got to paining me so much that about a week since I had it torn out, bringing with it a bit of the jawbone, the consequence of which is that my mouth is now so sore that I can neither talk nor eat. I am literally "subsisting on savory remembrances"—that is, being unable to eat, I am living upon the remembrance of the delicious dishes of peaches and cream we used to have at your house. When we left, Miss Fanny Henning was owing you a visit as I understood. Has she paid it yet? If she has, are you not convinced that she is one of the sweetest girls in the world? There is but one thing about her, as far as I could preceive, that I would have otherwise than as it is—that is, something of a tendency to melancholy. This, let it be observed, is a misfortune—not a fault. Give her an assurance of my very highest regard when you see her. Is little Siss Eliza Davis at your house yet? If she is, kiss her "o'er and o're again" for me. Tell your mother that I have not got her "present" with me, but I intend to read it regularly when I return home. I doubt not that it is really as she says, the best cure for the blues, could one but take it according to truth. Give my respects to all your sisters (including Aunt Emma) and brothers. Tell Mrs. Peay, of whose happy face I shall long retain a happy remembrance, that I have been trying to think of a name for her homestead, but as yet can not satisfy myself with one. I shall be very happy to receive a line from you soon after you receive this; and, in case you choose to favor me with one, address it to Charleston, Coles county, Illinois, as I shall be there about that time to receive it.

Your sincere friend,

A. LINCOLN.

STATE NEWS.

Franklin Shay, aged ten years, was killed by the cars in Harrisburg on the 6th inst.

H. T. Cochrane, Esq., has sold his interest in the Mt. Pleasant Journal to Mr. A. C. Haverstick.

Mr. Henry, of the Armstrong Republican, has withdrawn the suit for libel against Sam Young.

Henry Sierer, constable and tax collector of Wiconisco, Dauphin county, has gone glimmering, taking with him $2,000 of county funds.

There is a likelihood that the publication of the New Castle Journal will be suspended for some months, owing to the absence of Mr. D. Sankey, the senior editor, in Europe.

The Scranton News says sixty-nine fruit cars were turned out of the Berwick car works, June 3. The cars are ordinary house-car style, but specially adapted to transporting fruit.

The Harrisburg Patriot says: Large numbers of fat cattle are shipped through from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia and New York without unloading at this point. What has become of the "Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals?"

George Lloyd and Dick Carter had a fight at Dell's Delight, Blair county, last week, during which the first named drew a revolver and shot Carter in the elbow. The latter seized a pick, with which they had been digging worms, and striking Lloyd in the back, inflicted serious wounds.

On the 5th inst., Edward Klotz, charged with the murder of Kate Leinbach at Summit Hill, was taken before Judge Dehring at Mauch Chunk, and released on $2,000 bail for his appearance before court, which commences June 15th. The general impression is that he is innocent. There is no evidence that would lead to a conviction.

The Baltimore American says the Northern Central Railway has negotiated its new consolidated ten million loan. Six millions of the loan are to be used to secure bonds already issued, and the remainder is to provide for the floating debt and for such terminal and other facilities, improvements and equipments as may be deemed necessary to properly conduct the business of the road.

The Lancaster Express says: Lancaster should be called the "City of Churches." With a population of less than twenty-five thousand, she has twenty-eight places of public worship, divided as follows: Lutheran, five; Reformed, four—including the College Chapel; Episcopal, three; Catholic, three; Methodist, three; Baptist, two; Presbyterian, two; Evangelical Alliance, two; Church of God, one; Mennonite, one; Moravian, one; Hebrew, one. We also have a Swedenborgian Society, but they are at present without a public worship.

The Altoona Tribune says: In the month of September last Messrs. Thomas McCauley and James Lowther, of this city, purchased the half of a tract of land containing four thousand and four hundred acres, located in Clearfield county, and known as a part of the Flynn tract, for which they paid the sum of $275,000. Last week Mr. Thomas McCauley purchased the additional half of the tract, paying a like sum of $275,000 for it. This land contains almost inexhaustible supplies of coal and timber, it being underlaid with a six feet vein of bituminous coal, known as the Moshannon coal, and covered with the finest quality of pine timber of the first growth. It is well supplied with water for logging, and will be developed as rapidly as possible.

A Heretical Chicago Priest.

Chicago is a decidedly heretical city. The epidemic has broken out in an unexpected quarter. There is a young, cultivated, original Catholic priest in that city known as Father Terry. He lectured before the Catholic Library Association a few evenings ago and threw Professor Swing into the shade by the ultraness of his views and the cleverness with which they were expressed. He complained that the people who contended that the earth was made in six working-days do not say whether the Lord worked on the eight-hour system, and claimed that the Book of Genesis is an epic product of Oriental genius. Some of the explanations are harder to believe than the book, as, for instance, that Adam was thirty five years old when he was created, and that he was put to sleep when the rib was taken out of him, so that Eve might be spared the pain of having her mode of construction criticised. In speaking of the Ark, Father Terry said that it was rather remarkable how the different animals said to have been preserved in that structure reappeared again in the very parts of the world to which they must have been originally indigenous. Some theologians thought that they were transported to the Ark and back again by means of angels. Just think, said Father Terry, of an elephant sitting jauntily on the shoulder of a seraph, and of apes borne grandly in the air on the wings of cherubim. These and similar things indicate that Chicago is not likely to lack for theological sensations right away.

The old Westminister confession is getting irreverent thwacks all along the Presbyterian line of late. In England efforts are making for the union of the various Presbyterian bodies, and fifty synods have voted in its favor to thirty-five negatively.

The whites of almost the entire South are suffering from a malignant attack of colorphobia.

Food and Digestion.

In dyspepsia the gastric juice which should dissolve the food is only formed in small quantities, and whatever may be the feeling of emptiness and weakness in such cases, the dyspeptic should eat very sparingly. To remedy the evil, the mucous membrane of the stomach, which secretes and emits the gastric fluid, should be stimulated and toned, and the best, in fact the only sure preparation for this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Not only does this admirable stomachic promote a sufficient and steady supply of the solvent which converts the food to the purposes of life, but it also regulates the flow of bile, controls the bowels, and has a most invigorating effect upon the nerves. The glow which the very first dose diffuses through the system is an earnest of the more permanent vitalizing effects which are produced by its persistent use. It improves the appetite, cheers the spirits, and renders the body hardy and strong.

A POINTED ADDRESS.

Convinced that the system of long credits and extravagant prices (a feature inseparable from the old credit and loss system) was not sound, safe, or satisfactory to either customer or merchant, we have wholly discarded it, and inaugurated a reform which invites and, we believe, merits public confidence.

The Foundation Principle,
READY MONEY.
The goods bought and sold for Ready Money.
The very smallest rate of profit charged.
The lowest price marked in plain figures on each article, and no deviation allowed.
The customer free from payments of extra profits, necessary to credit business to cover losses.
Any article not approved is immediately exchanged, altered, or another made, and if these endeavors fail, or customer prefers, the money returned in full.
Orders from the city and country executed on this basis.
INSPECTION AND TRIAL SOLICITED ON THIS RECONSTRUCTED PLAN.
Patterns sent post free. Requests should give outline of kind and price preferred.
Our Stock is the largest in the city, both in Men's and Boys' Departments, as well as in piece goods for order work.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY EVENING, June 8, 1874.

The week opens with the weather oppressively hot and business men evince a disposition to close up any transactions now pending and leave town for the coming months of the summer solstice.

At the banks there is a general complaint of dullness in counter transactions, and weary clerks manage to balance cash as soon as the bell strikes three o'clock, and get away as soon as possible. The banks that are city depositories say they are kept busy attending to the municipal accounts, the Treasurer having drawn heavy amounts on them during the past few days. As the taxes for the year are coming in rapidly they expect soon to be in condition to loan liberally on good commercial paper and saleable collaterals.

From the fact that Pittsburgh is shipping little oil and less iron, and is realizing very low prices for the sales that are made. The "balance of trade" is running against us causing a scarcity of exchange of all kinds.

Many of the banks are shipping currency to New York to keep up their balances and exchange is selling as 1-10 premium.

Money continues abundant and commercial paper bearing home names dull; out of town borrowers who can satisfy the captious notions of lenders are selling paper in large blocks.

We have no changes in rates on loans to report.

From the best information we can obtain from the wool-growing counties there is likely to be but a slow movement of the new clip unless there is some change in view of those most interested. The farmers of Washington and Greene are prepared to let their stock go at 50 cents, and should buyers come up to that price we will have a rapid marketing of nearly the whole product of the flocks.

Yet operators appear fully determined to remain out of the market until the farmers change their views while the latter are stiff, basing their arguments for full prices upon the acknowledged total consumption of the old clip and the asserted light condition of the new. Buyers would start the market at 40 to 42 cents, which, if they succeed, will probably be followed by an advance to 45, which is as high a figure as they are justified in paying in view of the condition of the market for manufactured woolens. We judge prices will settle to about 45 cents, at which figures we hope to see rapid sales.

At the late meeting of the Directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, held June 4th, the following report was read:

The net profits of the company for the eight years commencing July 1st, 1866, and ending June 30th, 1874, those for the present month of June being estimated, are $23,077,069.23.

Represented as follows:
Cash on hand and due from agents	475,000.00

Poles, wire and other material and other supplies on hand	423,216.89
	$1,698,216.89

Of this sum, $1,400,000 is the net profit for the six months ending June 30th instant—about $740,000 being the net profit of April, May and June. This is an increase of more than $250,000 over the net profits of the same three months last year (1873).

The following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The business and financial condition of the company justify the resumption of regular dividends to the stockholders, which, in the judgment of this board, should be made quarterly; therefore,

Resolved, That a dividend of two per cent. from the net earnings of the three months ending June 30 be and the same is hereby declared payable on the 15th day of July next.

Resolved, That for the purpose of such dividend the stock books be closed at the close of business on the 25th instant, and be opened on the 16th of July.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bankers and Bank Clerks Association was held at their rooms in the Custom House, President Riddle in the chair. There was no business of importance transacted, other than the admission of new members.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, June 8, 1874.

Business was rather quiet on Monday in wholesale circles, only a moderate jobbing trade having been transacted during the day, with wholesale transactions generally somewhat dull. In bacon and provisions the movement was very brisk, orders coming in quite liberally. In groceries, trade was still rather quiet, and among commission and grain houses it was decidedly dull. The trade in fresh vegetables and strawberries was of course quite active.

We note two or three alterations of importance. In groceries, roasted coffees are reduced 1c per pound, and sugars have taken their upper course another ⅛ of a cent. Butter has weakened somewhat though not quotably changed since Saturday, and potatoes are much in the same category. Cheese is also ½@1c lower. Grain is unchanged.

The following are the receipts of the leading articles of produce by rail and river since our last:

Flour, bbls	695	Cheese, bxs	247
Corn, sacks	1,190	Wheat, sacks	510
Rye, sacks	155	Oats, sacks	3,987
Butter, pkgs	26	Bacon, tcs	17
Potatoes, bush	126

The following are prices for wholesale transactions unless otherwise specified. On small sales dealers charge an advance:

APPLE BUTTER—Prime 80c ₩ gal; fair to good 60@70c.

ASHES—Soda ashes, refined 4¼@4¾c; common 3¾@4c; black lead 5c; arsenic 5c; potash 9c; pearls 10c. Market very dull.

ALES—X $9 00 ₩ bbl; XX $10 00 ₩ bbl; India ale $11 00 ₩ bbl; Bass' English ale, in kilderkins of 22 gal, $24 00@25 00; bbls, 41 gals, $40 00@41 00; hhds, 68 gals, $62 50@65 00; in cases, 4 doz bottles, $20 75. Wm. Younger's India pale ale, in case of 8 doz bottles, $2 75@3 00 ₩ doz; Robert Younger's sparkling ale, $2 75@3 00 ₩ doz; Guinness' stouts, bottled by A. Burke, $2 75@3 00 ₩ doz; Cantrell & Coobrane's ginger ale, $2 75 ₩ doz; Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s ginger ale, $1 75 ₩ doz.

BUTTER—The market is very low and weak, choice being quoted at 18c; good to prime 14@16c; common to fair 10@12c. We do not think it possible for the market to go much lower, as about the bottom figure has been touched already, and there is no money in making or selling butter at present prices.

BEANS—Prime white navy beans are quoted at $2 50@2 60; fair to good $2 25@2 40.

BEESWAX—We quote white wax at 38@40c; common 33@35c ₩ ℔.

We quote as heretofore: St. Louis $9 00@10 00 ₩ bbl; choice winter wheat $7 50@7 75; Minnesota spring wheat $7 00@7 50; Wisconsin $6 75@7 00; red winter $7 25@7 50; Rye flour $6 00; Graham flour $7 25@7 30; Corn meal $3 50; Oat meal $3 00@4 00 ₩ bbl.

GRAIN—Transactions in grain were very limited to-day. The markets do not seem as weak as they have been, but there is a disposition on the part of buyers to hold off, and wait for developments. Wheat is exceedingly quiet at $1 35@1 40 per bushel for red winter, other grades nominal. Oats are steady at 60c for white, and 58c for mixed; receipts continue very free and the market has fallen off very gradually for the past two or three days, so that quotations are fully 1c per bushel low than four days ago. PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, TUESDAY, June 9, 1874.

REMARKS.—Since our last report there has been a slight improvement in crude oil. Whether the influences that have been depressing the market have lost their force, and oil having gone to the lowest point is now about to rise, or not, is a question which no one is fully qualified to decide. It is not saying too much, however, to express the hope that the market for oil will reach a point where it can be produced with profit, and that point once reached, that it will assume a steadier character than it has known for the past six months. For some time the oil market has been in a very unsatisfactory state, and we are glad to note any signs of improvement.

ALLEGHENY LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, MONDAY, June 8, 1874.

REMARKS—Notwithstanding the late heavy rains and high winds in this region, the days and nights are still extremely sultry, which does not tend to further the interests of those who make it their business to deal in live stock. The strong man desires meat, but during the "heated term" he supplies his wants, in a good degree, from the stock of "old meats" held in store by provision dealers.

The run of stock to-day at the Allegheny yards was lighter than usual, as will be seen by the table given below. It was, however, fully up to the requirements of the local trade, and in the matter of sheep a little too heavy.

When we left the yards, shortly after noon, the major part of the stock had been sold and driven away. There were a few sheep left in the pens, there being no purchasers for them, the butchers having fully supplied themselves. Cattle, hogs, cows, calves and lambs were well cleared up, there being few left to be carried to other markets for sale.

Arrivals of Stock.

From the books in the office of the freight office of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, we take the following receipts of live stock at the Allegheny Cattle Yards for the week ending Monday, June 8, 1874:

CATTLE.

	Cars.	Head.
L. Rothschilds	2	38
Eli Katz	1	17
Katz & H	1	17
Marks & Bro	3	55
Greenwald & Kahn	3	54
Marks & Kahn	1	16
B. L. Trauerman	2	39
Holmes, Lafferty & Glass	1	18
Hartman & B	1	19
McCall & R	2	39
M. Verner	2	32
Moonschine & K	3	50
Smith & L	2	34
Shamberg & L	3	50
M. Krause	1	18
Holmes, L. & Co	2	34
Odd lots		8
Total	30	583

It will thus be seen that the run of cattle by rail foots up only 583. Add to this the number driven in from East Liberty and the surrounding counties, and the whole number offered for sale would not exceed 700 head.

Besides the cattle, there was some 200 hogs, 160 sheep and 16 head of horses received by rail.

The tone, character and prices of the market to-day did not differ materially from those current last Monday. There did not seem to be the usual "higgling" as to prices, and what was done was done quickly. Perhaps it was too warm to "dicker" about small matters. That the market was satisfactory, we infer from the fact that there was a total absence of the usual grumbling on the parts of sellers and purchasers.

Well posted dealers in live stock do not anticipate a lively trade during the present and prospective warm weather, hence they will trim their sails accordingly.

We have said that prices to-day did not differ materially from those ruling one week ago. In proof of this we give below the prices at which the different classes of stock were sold:

Cattle.

As before remarked, the run of cattle was lighter than that of last week, though fully up to the demand of the trade, and few, if any, were left unsold at the close of the market. Following were the ruling figures of the market:

Prime native steers $7 00; good medium cattle $6 75; common stock $6 00@6 50; grassers $4 50@5 25; bulls, 1,000 to 1,100 ℔s $4 00@5 50; light bulls $2 50@3 00.

Hogs.

The number of hogs offered for sale was light, not exceeding 300. The market was dull and slow, particularly for very heavy fat hogs, light stock being in better demand. The market ruled as follows:

Heavy fat hogs $6 25@6 50; light hogs $6 00@6 10.

Sheep.

The run of sheep was up to the average, say about 700 head. As usual, all grades of sheep were to be found, from good to indifferent. At noon there were quite a number of the pens unsold, and wooled have to seek another market or be driven back to their homes in the country. The prices were as follows: Good 100 to 110 ℔s $6 00; fair 80 to 90 ℔s $5 00; medium 75 to 80 ℔s $4 00.

Lambs.

There were but few good lambs offered, and they were disposed of at $2 25@3 50 ₩ head.

Milch Cows.

There was about a dozen rather inferior milch cows offered and sold at prices ranging from $25 00 to $38 00.

Calves.

The number of calves offered was limited and were gobbled up early in the day the prices paid ranging from 4½c ₩ ℔, to 6c ₩ ℔, as to age.

Horses.

There was one car load of horses reported as having arrived, but they were not offered for sale, and would be shipped eastward.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Stocks opened dull and declined to ⅛@⅜, but soon become strong and continued so throughout, with an advance in prices ranging from ¼ to 1½ per cent., closing quotations in most cases having been the highest made. Business was well distributed, although the greatest activity was in Lake Shore, Western Union, Pacific Mail, Union Pacific, Wabash, New York Central and Northwest and St. Paul common. Erie displayed exceptional weakness, having declined from 32⅜ to 31¼ regular, and 31⅝ seller 30 days. These having been the closing quotations. This decline was in sympathy with the weakness at London, where the price was reported as low as 29½. There were many rumors afloat in regard to the company, the most important one being that McHenry had arrived at London to-day and was about to make a new deal for the coming elections. Sales 136,000 shares, of which 35,000 were Western Union, 17,000 Pacific Mail, 7,000 New York Central, 10,000 Erie, 26,000 Lake Shore, 15,000 Union Pacific, 8,000 Wabash and 5,000 Northwest.

MONONGAHELA—Three feet six inches, and stationary.

Boats Advertised to Depart.

Brownsville and Geneva—Morning boat, 8 A. M.; evening, 4 P. M.
Cincinnati...... Messenger.. Vandergrift, 4 P. M.

THE marks last evening indicated three feet six inches, about at a stand. The weather was extremely warm. Trade on the landing was not very active.

GALLIPOLIS collected $1,032 wharfage during the month of May.

WE ARE indebted to our old friend W. L. Dravo, of the Juniata, for a manifest. Thanks.

RATES from Dubuque to New Orleans have advanced to 32c on sacked grain, and 65c, per barrel on flour.

IT IS in contempeation to run three boats in the St. Louis and Keokuk trade the Harry, Andy and Bob.

RATE on cotton from Shreveport to New Orleans, $2 per bale; cattle, $2@4 per head. Up rates, half card.

THE fine sidewheeler Juniata, Captain C. L. Brennan, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville.

ALL the boats now run the chute of Henderson Island, but it is full of logs. The Kilgour struck one or two, sustaining no damage.

THE steamer Carrie Brooks, Capt. Darlington, is laid up at Zanesville. There will be no Muskingum river packet to-day.

THE Henry Ames paid $34 wharfage at Memphis on her trip down and up together. Her collections for freights both ways were $80.

"Down on the Dugan and up on the Fashion," is the way the Greenup Independent says, the denizens of that place obtain their drinks.

THE number of vessels belonging to, or bound to or from ports in the United States, reported totally lost and missing during the past month is thirty, of which seventeen were wrecked, three abandoned, one burned, two sunk by collision, one foundered, and six are missing. Their total value, exclusive of cargoes, is estimated at $475,000.

THE steam-whistle of the Ella Hughes, is offered for sale at Memphis, price $4,000. At the price named the steamboat and fixings will be thrown in.

A RAFT was broken up at Lansing on Friday by striking a pier, and one of the Diamond Jo line of steamers came near being seriously injured by a fragment of the raft.

THE steamer Granite State, Captain Kerr, is en route for this city. Whether she will turn back from Bellair or come through will depend on the stage of water.

ST. LOUIS.—The Evening Journal of Saturday says: Commodore W. J. Kountz is sojourning in the city. His great steamboat interests require considerable attention.

THE Evansville Courier says: Captain Thomas sold to George Lightner one-third of the propeller David Himrod yesterday for $700. So say the Custom-house records.

THINGS is workin'! The steamer Alex. Mitchell arrived at Davenport from St. Louis, Wednesday with the once famous white collars on her stacks! Ominous collars those.

SAMUEL CLARK, aged ten years, son of Captain George Clark, was drowned in the Monongahela river, near Belle Vernon, on Sunday, while bathing. The body was recovered some hours after the accident occurred.

THE steamer Andes, reports four feet of water from Wheeling to Cincinnati. The worst place is Letart Island. Captain Muhleman reports the old channel cutting out, with a probability of the water going back there.

THE remains of Capt. Dawson, of the ill-fated steamer Crescent City, will be interred in the McKeesport Cemetery. The deceased was married to a daughter of the late Capt. James R Hendrickson of that borough.

THE Middleport News says: The Kanawha No. 2 has been repainted, and now flies the blood-red acorn. The Bull of the Woods is undergoing repairs; she, it will be remembered, ran through herself some time ago.

THE express packets on the slackwater are all running on schedule time, and are carrying a large number of passengers. Punctuality, fast time and cheap fare are bound to win. For particulars call on Capt. A. S. Carlile, on the wharf boat.

THE fine steamer Andes, Captain C. Muhleman, takes her departure this day from Bellair for Cincinnati, on the arrival of the 1.28 P. M. train from this city. This boat is one of the best of her class afloat, and has careful and attentive officers.

THE fine steamer Exchange is undergoing complete and thorough repairs. She is rearing new chimneys and will receive a new coat of paint and be fitted up just as good as new for the low water season. Captain Rhodes knows how things ought to be done.

THE favorite steamer Messenger, Captain J. M. Vandergrift, is announced for Cincinnati and Louisville. The Messenger is noted for fine speed, superior accommodations, careful and attentive officers. Our attentive friend John C. Fisher will do the honors in the office.

THE Honolulu Gazette is responsible for the statement that the captain of a vessel which recently arrived there, after wintering in the Arctic, reports that he had a very mild season, which the natives attributed to the fact that the Americans had taken possession of their country, Russian America.

IN TOWN.—We were pleased to meet our old friend, Capt. George D. Moore, who in olden times commanded the far famed steamers James Nelson and Winchester, in the Pittsburgh and Wheeling trade. These were the fastest three boiler boats in their day. The Captain is now a resident of St. Louis. He looks the picture of good health. Long may it continue, is the wish of his numerous friends.

THE Memphis Avalanche says: Several efforts have been made to sell the Ella Hughes since she came here, but not being able to pass a clear inspection they have so far fell through. It is likely that the St. Francis will go to St. Louis for repairs. The Council Bend Cut—off has a fall of from 3½ to 4½ feet between its upper and its lower side. This is the declination of the river as measured by levels in a distance of fifteen miles.

THE St. Paul Pioneer of Thursday says: It was rather quiet on the levee yesterday. The incoming boats brought light freights, and there is very little down freight offering. The river continues to decline slowly, with no immediate prospect of a rise, unless the heavy rain which fell along the Minnesota river yesterday morning helps to check the decline. From all we can gather there is little prospect of a June rise, as all the snow has left the headwaters of the Mississippi, and all the northern streams are falling.

SATURDAYS St. Louis Republican says: The river continues to decline gradually and the water in the channel to Cairo is every day becoming less in depth, while the boat transit over the bars is daily attaining a more precarious attitude. The prospect for intercommunication with the Ohio river is also beginning to threaten a speedy suspension of big boat traffic with that river. At nearly all points heard from the rivers are slowly dropping. Business on the levee was more active than usual on Friday. There was a good showing in receipts by river, although the shipments were not heavy.

LATEST from the steamer Wolff: Mr. Bunnie Woolfolk, clerk of the Wolff, says that the sufferers made the provisions suffer, eating like wolves of the feminine persuasion. Mr. Woolfolk reports the larboard fore-and-aft hog chain of the Wolf broken, and says the boat has sunk five or six feet more on her larboad side since she first sank. He says that she has the appearance of having settled on the obstruction, whatever it is, she collided with. Although the top of the capstan is out of water yet at the stern of the boat the water is within two feet of the floor of the ladies' cabin. It is the opinion of those of the crew of the Wolf who returned on the Kinney that the sunken boat is a total loss.

Aid for Louisiana.

The annual meeting of the Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal church will be held in Trinity church on Wednesday morning, on which occasion there will be a collection taken up for the relief of the Louisiana sufferers. Members of the convention and other persons not able to attend the opening services, who may desire to contribute to this worthy cause are requested to send their offerings to the Bishop or the Secretary of the convention. It is hope that the offerings will be liberal.

Will of the Late N. P. Fetterman.

The will of the late N. P. Fetterman was admitted to probate yesterday, in the office of Register Gray. Decedent directs that his just debts shall be paid as soon as convenient by his executor, and after they have been paid, he bequeaths to his wife, Ann M. Fetterman, all his property, real, personal and mixed. He authorizes his executor to sell all or any part of his real estate, either at public or private sale, the proceeds, after the payment of his just debts, to be given to his wife. Charles S. Fetterman is appointed sole executor.

The Edgar Shooting.

The latest intelligence concerning the condition of George R. Edgar, mortally wounded by Thomas Potts at the Watson street brothel, on Sunday morning, was received at ten o'clock last night. At that hour the symptoms were unchanged; the pulse was very high, and every indication pointed to death before many hours. Edgar's physicians believe he will not live.

James Donovan, one of the parties to the bloody affray, was sent to jail by Acting Mayor McMasters yesterday, to await the result of Edgar's injuries, and charged with felonious assault and battery.

Hydrophobia.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

Rumor has it that one or two rabid dogs have recently appeared in the vicinity of the city, and a short time ago your local columns chronicled the death of a citizen from hydrophobia. The torrid season is upon us, and it is time the authorities were taking some measures to protect the public from the dangers incident to a free perambulation of the streets by the swarms of worthless curs which continually infest them. The city would suffer no loss if three-fourths of its canine population were sent off on a long chase to the happy hunting grounds.

GROWLER.

Impressive Ceremony.

On Sunday the congregation of Rev. J. D. Herr's (Baptist) church, in the Twenty-first ward, assembled at Finley's pond to witness the impressive service of baptism by immersion. Six adult candidates received the Ordinance, at the hands of the pastor. The scene was impressive and drew together a large throng of interested spectators.

The Pittsburgh Association Baptists will hold a meeting in the Thirty-seventh street Baptist church, at half-past ten o'clock, this morning. Rev. A. M. Shadwick, of Saltsburg, will preach a sermon. In the evening the Sunday school convention will be held.

Temperance Cadets.

Last evening a band of seventy-two youths, ranging in age from ten to sixteen, were organized as an auxiliary society to St. Paul's Temperance Association, under the style of St. Paul's Temperance Cadets. The pledge was administered by Rev. Father Boyle, after which Wm. M. McLaughlin, Esq., was appointed Supervising President. Master Chas. E. Houston, of the Second ward, and Page of Select Council, was elected President. The Cadets will meet soon again to complete their organization. The officers of the parent society assisted at the ceremony.

Master Car Builders' Convention.

At two o'clock this morning a large party of Pittsburghers left for Cincinnati to attend the annual convention of the Master Car Builders' Association, which will open in that city on Wednesday morning. Comprised in the delegation were the following gentlemen: Messrs. Robert S. Ramsey, Pennsylvania Railroad car shops; Robert Gunning, Allegheny Valley Railroad; C. Woods, Union Line; Aaron French, of A. French & Co.; John T. Wilson, of Wilson, Leggate & Co.; Wm. Dickson, of Dickson, Stewart & Co.; Jacob Kinzer, of Kinzer & Jones; John J. Torley, of McGowan, Torley & Co.; George Morris, of the Climax Spring Works; Alex. Pitcairn, of the Excelsior Omnibus Company. Mr. George W. Bittner and others will follow to-day.

Leander Gary, Esq., Superintendent of the Car Department New York Central Railroad joined the party here.

Thirty-Seventh Ward Schools.

John Dalzell, Esq., solicitor for the Wilkins sub-district School Board, yesterday filed in the Court of Common Pleas, a petition for leave to borrow money—not exceeding $50,000—to defray the expense of a new school house. Mr. James Kelley files exceptions, on the ground that there is no Wilkins sub-district, or no Thirty-seventh ward of Pittsburgh. A rule was granted on Mr. Kelley, to show cause why the petition should not be granted. Mr. Dalzell also filed a petition, on behalf of the Wilkins sub-district School Board, for an equitable division of the school property of Wilkins township—in other words, to ascertain what portion belongs to the Thirty-seventh ward. A rule was also granted on Mr. Kelly, in this case and both rules were made returnable on the 13th inst. at eleven o'clock A. M. The Board of Viewers appointed to assess certain property belonging to James Kelly, which the school board desire for a school site, reported that the property was worth $5,500. The lot is one hundred and thirty-two feet front by two hundred and sixty-four feet deep, and adjoins the Covenanter church. It is probable this site will be selected.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

Tony Pastor's very excellent variety troupe made their first appearance at the Opera House last evening. Our expectations, as indicated yesterday morning, were fully realized. The programme embraced a little of everything known as the variety business, and it was all of the first order. The proprietor throws his whole weight upon the experiment of pleasing, and settles the matter of complete success by his own personal assistance. His songs were ever popular, but never more pleasing than last night. He entertained the audience for nearly half an hour, concluding with his "stereoption," which consists of a dozen views to illustrate a good song. The Garnella brothers show some marvelous gymnastic and acrobatic feats, giving strong color to their claim of being the most wonderful performers in the world. The Stuart sisters do some good dancing and singing. Larry Tooley is one of the best Dutch singers and dancers. The Fieldings (John and Maggie) give very good Irish sketches and sing well together. Walters and Morton are in the front rank of black dancers and negro delineators. Harry Ashcroft is the most successful personator of the style and manner of the male exquisite. Miss Ella Wesner is starting in the extreme. Miss Ella Wesner is the style and manner of the male exquisite. Billy Ashcroft does the Irish, male and female, awkward and refined, with remarkable fidelity to nature. His Connemara wedding scene is exceedingly enjoyable. Mr. E. D. Davis may well be styled the "premier ventriloquist of the world." He is simply inimitable, and his act was the gem of the whole bill. His vocalization is wonderful beyond description. At one time he holds conversation with four imaginary persons, with scarcely a motion of his lips. In a word, there is not a "stick" in the whole company, nor a mediocre performance during the entertainment. It is first-class, and should be liberally patronized. Tony sojourns with us no longer than the present week.

Trimble's Varieties Theater.

The new stars at this house justified, by their performance last evening, all said about them in the announcement. Many clever things are done in the olio, and a very laughable farce is the entertainment.

Martin's New Variety Theater.

The strange faces on the stage at this house created a very favorable impression on the audience. Miss Minnie Lozier being specially favored with applause. The performance throughout is very enjoyable.

FEDERAL STREET, ALLEGHENY.

The Ordinance Changing the Grade Recommitted.

Allegheny Councils were to have held a special meeting last evening to consider the ordinance heretofore published, changing the grade of Federal street. As the matter came up in regular order before Common Council, Select Council, not having any business before it, adjourned until Thursday evening.

Common Council was called to order at eight o'clock P. M., by President Long.

The Chair stated that the object of the meeting was to consider the ordinance changing the grade of Federal street.

Mr. Sholes moved to concur in the action of Select Council.

Mr. Cochran moved to amend by adopting another grade, which raises the street above the present grade at the railroad intersection.

At this point the privilege of the floor was granted John R. Large, Esq., who appeared on behalf of the Federal street property holders. He gave their views at considerable length, claiming that the proposed change of grade would cause greater damage than benefit.

Mr. Price was willing to vote for a rising of the grade from Robinson street to the bridge.

Mr. Johnson called attention to the vagueness in the working of the ordinance. The City Engineer, if the ordinance in its present shape passed, could give any grade he pleased, and yet conform to the ordinance.

Mr. Hastings supported Mr. Price's position, and produced from his pocket another plan of regrading Federal street. This involves the cutting away of the hump at that part of the thoroughfare lying between North Diamond street and a short distance below Park Way. It is proposed to make a cut of four feet three inches at North Diamond street, gradually diminishing the grade to about the southern wall of Mr. Semple's store. The cut in front of City Hall would be about four feet; at Ohio street four feet seven inches, gradually coming to a level with the present grade a little distance below Park Way.

A recess of five minutes was taken to allow members an opportunity of examining Mr. Hastings' profile. On reassembling, Mr. Hastings moved to recommit the whole subject to the Street Committee with instructions to report all the data bearing on the question and providing for the appointment of viewers.

Mr. Johnson offered an amendment requesting the Street Committee to incorporate the exact plan of the wording of such ordinance as they might report. Amendment accepted.

Mr. Price wanted an amendment incorporated raising the grade at least between Robinson street and the bridge.

Mr. Roberts thought the whole subject should be dropped forever. Nobody wanted any change.

Mr. Golden thought the improvement was one of general importance.

Mr. Long favored recommittal.

Mr. Roberts moved to lay the whole subject on the table, and Mr. Sholes called for the yeas and nays, which resulted: yeas, 4; nays, 10.

Mr. Hastings' motion to reconsider was then put and carried by: yeas, 13; nays, 10.

Adjourned.

ANOTHER NEW RAILROAD.

The Marietta, Cleveland and Pitsburgh Line.

It is but a few days since we announced the formal opening of the Pittsburgh, Youngstown and Ashtabula Railroad, an important branch which gives to Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio a new outlet to the lakes Another new line, having Cleveland as its northern terminus, will be opened for travel within sixty days, namely: the Marietta, Pittsburgh and Cleveland Railway. The Cleveland Leader says:

The road in question is a new line branching off southward from the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road at Bayard. It intersects the Lake Shore and Tuscarawas Valley Railway at Dover, crosses the Pan Handle line at Newcomerstown and the Central Ohio division of the Baltimore and Ohio at Cambridge, in Guernsey county. Thence proceeding southerly the line terminates at Marietta, having crossed more rich coal land than the Hocking Valley road, and the famous and unique deposit of black band ore in Tuscarawas county, from which is made the American Scotch pig. Besides these rich field of coal and ore, the Marietta and Cleveland road opens up the richest tobacco producing district in Ohio, so productive that during part of last season when the road now under consideration had only fifty-seven miles of track in operation, it transferred to the Baltimore & Ohio Road at Cambridge upwards of one hundred hogshead of tobacco per day. The coal along the line is of two kinds, that known as the Pittsburgh vein, and the Macksburgh coal, exceedingly rich and heavy, and greatly esteemed by the river, steamboat men as a steam fuel.

This Court will not be in session to-day, the room being required for political purposes.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

Prof. Henry Gibbons, of the High School, was tried for assault and battery upon the son of Joseph Hartman, aged sixteen years. The fact seemed to be that young Hartman was wrangling with another boy, and the Professor seized him and landed him in another seat. The testimony was conflicting as to whether the school was open or not. The court held that it made no material differenec whether the "order" had been "rapped" or not, it was the duty of the teacher to preserve order. There was no testimony that any violence had been used, except what had been brought on by the boy's own conduct, in endeavoring to get away, and that consisted only in a strengthening of the hold on the part of the Professor. If the jury should find for the defendant, they were to make disposition of the costs. If they should find that the prosecutor was actuated by improper motives, as was intimated by the defendant's counsel, they should throw the costs on him. If his motive was good, and he really thought he had suffered an injury, the county should be made to pay the costs, and if the defendant had conducted himself not altogether exemplary, and was somewhat to blame, the costs should be thrown on him. The jury was out but a few minutes, and returned a verdict for the defendant, directing the prosecutor to pay the costs.

The case of I. L. Book was settled on payment of costs. The charge was assault and battery.

Robert Mathews, indicted for selling liquor to a minor, was acquitted, but directed to pay half the costs, and the prosecutor, Benjamin Myers, the other half.

Wm. H. Jones, indicted for larceny and receiving stolen goods, plead guilty, and was sentenced to the Workhouse for one year.

John Cupps plead guilty to a charge of larceny and receiving stolen goods, and was sentenced to the Workhouse for four months.

Emanuel Jackson was acquitted of a charge of assault and battery, and the prosecutor, Evans E. Davis, was directed to pay the costs.

A nolle prosequi was allowed in the case of S. M. James, charged with perjury.

Robert Mathews plead guilty to assault and battery. Sentence deferred.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Lena Hoffman indicted for fraudently making a written instrument and fraudently uttering the same, is on trial. The prosecutrix is Louisa Wolf.

"DISTANCE LENDS ENCHANTMENT TO THE VIEW."

Telescopic Sightings, &c.

On Sunday afternoon last, from two to three o'clock, a man was seen stretched on the roof, or skulking behind the chimney of a dwelling corner of Chatham street and Fifth avenue extension, which he extemporized as a look-out observing the "transit of Venus." Many living in the immediate vicinity became greatly alarmed, mistaking him for an escaped lunatic, armed with a villainous shotgun, but upon closer observation he proved to be a lover of nature and natural scenery, and with a large spy-glass in hand, was privately taking in the mundane aspect of '74. He would be a valuable acquisition to the government astronomical party about to sail on the Swartara, as he would no doubt prove to be a persistent scietific magnetic explorer. The crusaders on Sunday immorality, or the police, should give the young man their attention in future.

Temperance Alliance.

A meeting of the Temperance Alliance was held yesterday morning. The matter of the Women's State Convention was discussed, and it was finally decided to appoint a committee of seven to co-operate with the ladies in arranging for the Convention. The following were chosen: Mr. Powell, Rev. Ellis, Rev. McMillan, Luther S. Kaufman, Rev. Brown, D. J. Rodgers and T. H. Rabe. The committee will meet Thursday noon.

It was stated that the wound was only slight, and that the outraged father had been expelled by some male friends of the institution.

DETECTIVE LONG has recovered the jewelry stolen some time since from the residence of Coroner McCallin. The swag was recovered on the person of "Spooney" Butler, who was sent to the Workhouse some time since. He endeavored to effect an escape but was caught, and the jewelry found upon his person. The rings have been fully identified by Miss McCallin.

In Water Ices there are Pine Apple, Strawberry, Peach, Catawba and Macidoine. The list of creams embraces Vanilla, Strawberry, Chocolate, Lemon, Pistachio, Bisque and Frozen Peach. Duryeas' famous "Satin Gloss Starch" is now for sale in Pittsburgh. This article has taken the first prize medals in Europe and the United States whenever placed in competition with other starch. Its peculiar qualities will at once be understood by all good housekeepers when tested, it being snow white, perfectly pure, and stronger than any other starch. The superior strength and beautiful clear finish it gives to the linen, renders it not only the most economical but the most desirable for all who use starch.
